A People's Movement.

In view of the fact that Democratic and so-called Independent journals have had so much to say in regard to Gorham and Sargent swindling the Republican masses out of their choice, the operations of the Independents in this county become more than ordinarily interesting. The manner in which these self-appointed reformers put up the delegation from this county, transcends anything that has yet occurred in that line on the Pacific coast. Notice of the meeting of the State Convention had been given for many weeks, but the Committee of this county, in order to muzzle the people, refused to call primaries, or to allow them any voice in the selection of delegates. On the afternoon of the day previous to the meeting of the Convention in Sacramento, a portion of the Committee (some of them appearing by proxy) met in this city and appointed sixteen delegates to the State Convention. This Committee knew that it was an absolute impossibility for the delegates so appointed, except those residing here in San Jose, to receive notice of their appointment and reach Sacramento in time to take any hand in the proceedings of the Convention. And right here is where the fraud becomes more apparent. The Committee named as those delegates who could reach Sacramento in time, persons who were favorable to Estee, and among them Estee's father-in-law. Those delegates who could by no possibility overcome the distance in time to vote in the Convention, were known friends of Bidwell. To fasten the job in the interest of Estee, it was further ordered that there should be no proxies, and that the delegates present at the Convention should cast the vote of the entire delegation. We must pause here in admiration for the cheek which permitted men, acting with a County Committee by virtue of proxies, resolving that no proxies should be allowed to others. D. M. Delmas and the father-in-law of Estee left for Sacramento on Tuesday morning, and arrived there in time to take a hand in the contest. Billy Kiddy and Alex. Hay, of Gilroy, two delegates favorable to Bidwell, and who had in some way discovered the job that was being played on them, came up last evening on their way to the Convention; but as they could not reach Sacramento before 1:30 this afternoon, they will not have much voice in the proceedings. We give the above as a sample of the manner in which the Independent propose to conduct the campaign. The people will be allowed a voice only so long as that voice is to the interests of the place hunters.—San Jose Advertiser.

Apathy of Voters.

It is well known that many of our best citizens, enjoying the right of elective franchise, are wholly indifferent in its exercise. They seldom, if ever, go to the polls and vote, and then not as a duty, but only at the earnest solicitation of some friend who presses them for his support. They have what would seem good excuses to urge in explanation of this indifference, we are ready to admit, but their excuses are untenable, unreasonable, and such as should never be allowed to lead good citizens away from the discharge of duty. They neglect the performance of a sacred trust to the detriment of their own interests, to the interests of society and the cause of political liberty.

As citizens and members of society, bound together by mutual pledges of protection and support, can any member refuse to lend his aid in promoting the general good consistant with the pledges. He asks for the enactment of just laws, and an honest administration of public affairs, and yet he is so blind and indifferent as not to be willing to aid in the work of reformation.

We will say that it is demoralizing to mingle in the exciting scenes of a political contest; we will say that it is disputable to button-hole for office, that the crowning devices of political tricksters too often give the control of public officers into the hands of self-seeking politicians and unscrupulous demagogues. But are these admissions to be allowed to furnish good citizens with excuses to be given in explanation of this negligence? Let every man who desires that his children may prosper under a wise government, who looks not to his own personal welfare alone, but to the welfare and protection of his family, and the hard earnings he had accumulated for their support, come out at every election and vote, and exercise the sacred right which has been entrusted to him in the cause of reform. Then, and not until then, will self-seeking politicians begin to realize that political dishonesty is unprofitable.—San Jose Mercury.

—A Philadelphia German, upon the arrival of a second pair of twins, said to his family physician, "Ov you please Doctor, it ish besster that a schtop be boot to dose dings. One pair of quince, I dinks ish aller roit, but more as dot is blaid owit. Don't id. You know how it is myself.

—If there is anything in this world that makes a man feel like serving his country on the bloody field of battle, it is to see a one legged soldier jerking "Mollie Darling" out of an old hand organ for cold grub.

—If alcohol were unknown, half the sin and three parts of the poverty and unhappiness in this world would disappear.—Prof. Parkes.

Messrs. Dunham & Lathrop's New Photographic Art Gallery, at No. 1157 Broadway, west side, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth streets, near the City Hall, is now open to the public. This is the only photographic establishment on the Pacific Coast, fitted up in first-class style, where everything is on the ground floor, altogether dispensing with an "elevator" or stairs. Every style of work known in the business is here executed in admirable style, including the new promenade and gray vignettes. Special attention given to children's pictures, locket work, copying and enlarging. View work will also receive special attention. Terms always reasonable.

Enjoy the Luxury of an Easy Shave and the advantage of having your Hair Carefully and Scientifically Cut, by going to the Grand Central Hotel Shaving and Hair Dressing Saloon, Twelfth Street. Easy chairs, good razors and polite attention. SAMUEL PARSONS, Proprietor.

THE best defense of the Bidwell-Pacheco ticket is, that it is a case of 'poetic justice' 'Poetic mush'

LET ex Governor Haight not act bull headed, now that his political passions have cooled His experience and temporary rest from public vanities and vexations have fitted him to render the State the best possible political service moreover, it looks like his grand opportunity on general principles.

THE curse of the Republicans of California is the universal disposition and determination of its office-seekers to have what they are after, regardless of consequences If they do not get nominated in to-day's Convention they'll pack their carpet bag into to-morrow's, and if that fails, will set up for them selves individually.

THE jury in the Beecher Tilton trial were still out at last accounts They might as well stay out so far as changing the general verdict is concerned The defence of private character in Brooklyn, N Y is only equaled in words and professions by the politicians in California. The general verdict is that not very low down there has been a deal too much adultery of a commonplace order

Judge McKee could receive the Democratic nomination for Governor if he would accept it and the political outlook now almost justifies the opinion that he would be elected —Transcript

Et tu brute What has disgusted the ever-faithful organ of the Republican party in Oakland? Is it possible that sinecure has gone clear out of the family, with no show for its recovery, except through a national Democratic victory? However as the Judge won't accept there is no harm perhaps, in saying that he "would be elected" etc

PARSON BROWNLOW'S proposition to fight a duel with General D H Hill in an open hog pen, after a hard Summer rain with dung forks betrays a nicer sense of propriety than the Parson is generally supposed to possess Ill

We have heard of a proposed duel at Prescott, Arizona, that discounts the Hill-Brownlow affair. A chivalrous chap challenged an old miner, or mountain man, who was a man of known courage, but who had an extreme contempt for those sticklers for 'the code.' Having the choice of weapons he proposed that they should consist of a couple of long Texas beef horns, and that the scene of conflict should take place at the nearest slaughter-house immediately after 'a killing ' The steaming insides of the animal were to be dragged out and ripped open, and the two antagonists were to scoop up the savory ammunition—load and fire until one or both fell or fled. The result was, that the son of thunder was so mortally offended and disgusted at the proposition, and rendered so ridiculous that he left the Territory as soon as possible and has never been heard of since

THE following dispatch has apparently escaped the notice of our metropolitan press which did so much, in connection with the other petty thieves to puff Elaine into an ephemeral notoriety

NEW YORK June 25 It is reported that Garcia, the Spaniard who stole a portion of the Murillo picture from the Cathedral at Seville and who was kidnapped to Cuba and subsequently to Spain was shot a few weeks after his arrival at Madrid without trial or by a drum head court martial

They have a superior knowledge and appreciation of things artistic in the old world, and so when they got the fellow who gave the San Francisco thieves the hint, back from America it was resolved to shoot him, and never permit him to commit such a crime against art again in this world The idea that a 'Murillo' should be cut out of its frame, pirated across the ocean, and made to herald the coming of a 'Rosenthal,' was too much for those Castilian bloods. The San Francisco press printed this little dispatch without a word of comment—stowed it away as quietly as possible, while poor old Elaine is utterly forgotten in the whirl and noise of politics, and her greatest patron—the Spanish pirate—is supposed to be shot and mouldering in his grave

SACRAMENTO, June 25 —The funeral of the late E B Crocker will take place from the family residence at one o'clock to-morrow, Leland Standford C R Huntington, B B Redding, S S Montague Jerome Madden and H O Beatty acting as pall-bearers.

George C Gorham will arrive here to-morrow and speak in the Metropolitan Theatre to-morrow night on the political situation of this State

Five car-loads of immigrants arrived from the East this morning, they were transferred to the steamer John for passage to San Francisco

DUBLIN, June 25 —The Irish and American Teams practised at Dolly Mount to day The scoring of the Americans was remarkably fine, the total points made being 16 above the victorious score of last year at Creedmoor. The members of the Teams accompanied by the Lord Mayor, attended a performance to-night at the Royal Irish Academy of Music

LOS ANGELES, June 25.—A band of sixteen stolen horses, in custody of John Boyd, were captured by the Sheriff yesterday near Lyons Station and brought in to-day.

The experiment of raising coffee is to be extensively made in this valley. Seed from the best coffee regions of Mexico is offered for distribution

SAN DIEGO (Cal), June 25 —There is a rumor in town that a serious revolution has broken out in Sonora, and that General Dalavos, director of Government affairs on the frontier, was a prisoner in the hands of the revolutionists

CONCORD (N. H), June 25 —In the house to-day a vote was taken on the resolutions censuring the Government and Council in the Senatorial matter. They were adopted by a party vote of 174 ayes to 166 noes

OLYMPIA (W. T.), June 25.—Judge McFadden, delegate to Congress from Washington Territory, died at noon to-day of dropsy, at the residence of his son-in-law, Judge Miller.

"THE" MAN FOR ALL PARTIES

As a general proposition, which no one can gainsay the political situation in this State is anomalous It is wholly like itself There never was the like before and we hope there will never be the like of it again Let us not deceive ourselves in word or deed Let us have no farther play upon words but call things by their right names

Once for all the Republican party of California is in that condition that its best friends—those who are not professional mourners—are of the profound belief that it must and shall take a thorough temporary back seat Gorham's programme was a nine days wonder—that of the so-called People or Independent's is already a dead cock in the pit Those who generated it and were in at its birth—have already evinced a silent, deep determination to bury it in its swaddling clothes All eyes are turned for future consolation to tournament No 3 in the name of State political conventions

The question of the hour is—who is to be The Coming Man? The Phelps pill has worked the wrong way and Gorham's cast-off clothes in the shape of Bidwell and Pacheco do not set well on those who are expected to wear them Let us hope and labor to the end that California politics shall no longer be a little game of heads I win, tails you lose " The lungs, stomach and underpinnings of the State are sick of the rule of wormy brains—of the scheming, selfish and spiteful management and dictation of self-styled leaders From the first of it—the first blush—the result of the Gorham Sargent Convention was a 'give away,' it has required but a moment to strip the Swift Booth Convention of its hypocrisy, its bald promises, and leave it bare and dry as the sun-burnt plains of Sacramento it is a self pronounced fall down Neither effort arose above a farce the best we can hope for, as Republicans, is a failure as to avowed objects and through the general humiliation a third new deal based upon the anticipated mistakes of our common enemy and the complete absorption of our internal dissensions in the exigencies and forthcoming tournaments of the great party at large

We have honestly advocated the claims of Lieutenant-Governor Irwin, in view of the pending State Democratic Convention, as the most suitable person to succeed the present sore headed place hunting Governor of the State But we have recognized the fact that the Democracy have a multitude of candidates—or men seeking to be standard-bearers of the party, that the Democracy are subject to the same miserable divisions of counsels that have resulted in the total wreck, for the time being of the grand old Republican party of this State. In view of these conditions of things, it behooves the members of the convention to convene in San Francisco on next Tuesday, to cast about for a compromise candidate. To forestall all emergencies, let them bear in mind the name of ex-Governor Henry H Haight No man in California as a candidate for Governor at this juncture could possibly come nearer filling the bill than the man who cleaned out the Gorham-Bidwell factions of 1867, and which are more than ever pitted against each other They are now evenly matched, weighted, booted and spurred The money and prestige of the Federal Administration are pitted against the hypocrisy, false claims, sore headedness and the like capital of the so called reformers This is a balance which Republicans on every street corner, are only too willing to pronounce correct

Haight is the man for the times He stood the brunt of the anti-monopoly fight all others—Booth Gorham etc have simply hopped upon the shoulders of the little man who swept the State in 1867 He was a new man in politics His vanity was unduly flattered He did many foolish things, but nothing so bad as to forfeit the respect of the masses. He has had experience—a hard one and lived down all criticism and to day is the strongest man that could be named for re election to the position he so honorably filled He came upon the scene when party prejudice and passion demanded of him sacrifices unprecedented All things considered, he acquitted himself remarkably well and to-day he could rally around him more men of all parties all races, creeds and conditions —North, South East and West than any other one man in California

When you come to talk about reward for services during a most critical period who is so deserving of a re nomination and election, as Henry H Haight But we are told he will not accept on any terms. He lost money in itself, and sacrificed business interests, in his first political contest This would not occur again He could sweep the field without extra expense As the legislative ticket is destined to be traded scratched and mixed beyond all precedent, it is more than ever necessary that we have a Governor who has had experience, who is educated honest and altogether worthy to hold the reins of government in the interest of retrenchment, economy and reform Let us have Haight and Irwin on a platform that is not all wind and water A few strong, simple resolutions and Democracy and Republicanism, and the affairs of the State will be the better for it

It is worthy of remark that the Independent delegation from San Francisco was made up of State office holders and their supporters The Independents are the foes of monopolists They want the people all to have an equal chance But they nominate a man to head their ticket who owns and holds twenty-three thousand acres of land, which he will not sell unless fancy prices are paid him yet he pays taxes on a mere nominal sum per acre, of that vast body. Take it all in all, we do not see but the "grin" ought to come in on the other side of the mouth now The laugh has been on Republicans for some time —Nevada Transcript

NEW YORK, June 25.—At the Plymouth Church prayer meeting to night Beecher created a sensation by referring to the trial for the first time since it went into Court He said he would still continue to act as pastor of Plymouth Church, because he felt that no matter what the verdict of the jury in the case might be, his congregation would still have faith in him and stand by him

OMAHA June 25 —Indians have stolen a large lot of horses near Lookout, Wyoming. Private advices from the Red Cloud Agency say the Indians will undoubtedly sign away their hunting rights in Wyoming and probably in Nebraska.

POLITICAL EXCHANGE NOTES

Irwin stock seems to be looking up among the Democrats Haight Casserly and Farley are working for him

Tuttle was nominated in the Second District, with the hope of securing a Democratic indorsement

Reed will probably back out in the Third, in favor of Luttrell Yet Lutes- and Freights I reckon lost ices Luttrell fraud

Rotation in office is a good thing, and so is rotation in candidacy If at first you don't succeed try try again may be a good principle for the individual but is a bad one for the party

Gunn with two n's is the name of the Independent Republican candidate for Superintendent of Public Instruction He is said to be very popular in Anaheim and will probably have several majority there

He will not carry his own county The settlers will see to that Remember the Suscol business A land monopolist a temperance fanatic, an opponent of the Freeman Fare and freight bill and—let us say it in genuine sorrow—a man whose memory and whose mind are liable to topple over any day, where is his strong point?—what is there to commend him?

The final resolution of the platform, which says, in effect, that the party is but an ephemeral organization, was strongly opposed by many delegates Judge Johnson of Yolo, said that if the party is to be like Johna's gourd, that grew up in a night and withered in a day, he didn't care to belong to it Others spoke to the same effect. The objectionable declaration was kept in however through Swift's exertions by a majority of only eleven First blood for Swift in his contest with Booth who wants a national party, to make him President

For Congressman, Charles W. Luttle has been nominated He is an honest man and an able man, but he is a chronic office-seeker, and has been for the past twenty years —Nevada Transcript

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Full Attendance of Delegates—Apples of Discord—The Point Sends a Delegation, Which is Rejected—The Report of the Committee on Order of Business Rejected.

The Democratic headquarters have been thronged all the forenoon with delegates and other members of the rejuvenated if not regenerated, Democracy During the forenoon there was a secret caucus of the Oakland delegation but what was done did not transpire previous to the meeting of the Convention

Promptly at 1 o'clock the Convention was called to order by M Fallon, Chairman of the County Central Committee who briefly stated the objects of the Convention

James Becht nominated Charles Whitmore, of Murray township for Temporary Chairman There being no other nominations, Mr Whitmore was unanimously chosen Chairman On taking the Chair, Mr Whitmore thanked the Convention for the honor conferred and asked the further pleasure of the meeting

Mr Wm Gibbons of Alameda was chosen Secretary

On motion one delegate from each township was appointed by the Chair a Committee on Credentials

The Chair named the following gentlemen

S D Cronin Oakland H Wilcox Brooklyn M W Peck, Alameda John Ludwig Eden G H Curragh Washington T F Meyers Murray

On motion the Chair appointed one delegate from each township as a Committee on Order of Business as follows J Becht, Oakland Thos W. Bulger Brooklyn Thos White Alameda W H Mill... Eden H C Crowell Washington J J Clark Murray

Convention adjourned for half an hour

On reassembling, the Committee reported that the credentials were all correct with the exception of those of a delegation from West Oakland It appeared that the Central Committee in their call for a primary election fixed but one polling place in Oakland This did a manifest injustice to the voters of the Point Precinct The Democrats of that place met on the day of election and organized a polling place and voted for five delegates 32 votes being cast The returns of this election were presented to the Committee on Credentials and the delegates claimed seats in the Convention The Committee submitted the matter to the Convention without recommendation

Mr Cronin moved that the claims of the Point delegates be rejected and that they be refused seats in the Convention

A delegate desired to know if Mr Cronin claimed to represent West Oakland Mr C replied that the primary election was held in pursuance of the call of the Central Committee and the Convention ... then ... action

The motion was carried

The nine delegates to which the county is entitled in the State Convention Oakland Township shall select two delegates and each of the other townships select one delegate to be chosen by the several delegations and that two delegates be chosen by the Convention for the county at large

Third—That the Convention adjourn

Mr Clark made some explanatory remarks as to the intentions of the Democracy in the business of cleaning out Dolly Vardenism and radicalism at the approaching election, and claiming on behalf of the Committee that the apportionment of delegates was fair

Mr Cronin opposed the gentleman in a strong speech claiming that Oakland was entitled to three delegates

On the motion for the adoption of the committee's report by ... the vote the ayes and nays were so equally divided that the Chair was unable to determine which was in the majority, and a division of the house was demanded

On the call of the roll the motion was lost by a vote of 33 to 28

On motion the Committee on Order of Business were discharged and a new Committee of one from each township and two from Oakland were appointed by the Chair H Nelson Eden Henry Hampel Brooklyn W W Peck, Alameda J J. A VOYAGE TO BERKELEY.

The One Horse Railroad—Pleasant Appearance of the Country—A Lovely Slope—Progress of the Harvest—Youthful Husbandmen—The University Halls Deserted—University Land Matters—The Museum of Minerals—Professor Hanks—University Water Monopoly, Etc.

One of the TRIBUNE'S numerous and talented staff having a recreative idea in his head betook himself to Berkeley on Thursday last making the voyage with a one horse car, or as it is fashionable to style it in modern parlance, a "one horse horse car" There may be those who will demur to the propriety of our using this language—voyage by horse car but a voyage must not of necessity be made by sea, as we can prove by falling back on our French We can however, justify ourselves in English, if necessary, by insisting that we ... what ... is like just now ... as it is by the wild young men and studious misses who usually resort there in search of learning and to distinguish themselves in various outlandish ways

There is no lovelier view in the world than that which is now to be enjoyed from the Summit looking down on Berkeley and Oakland The panorama is most inspiring, but we were not on the Summit We were pleased to view the scene from its own lovely level Passing through Telegraph avenue the views of the elegant residences on either side, with their handsome gardens, lawns and trees command fixed attention Temescal (some three miles distant) reached, we emerged into the open fields now covered with growing crops or crowned with cocks of hay and stooks of grain

Soon after leaving Temescal, a willow copse which stands on the left side of the railroad track is passed and for a distance tall weeds and wild flowers make a margin for the track Taking in the view that greeted us as we sped on towards Berkeley we were charmed It is a sight a poet might gloat over but just now we shall endeavor not to seriously disturb our feelings on the subject Let us say however it is so homelike so reminding of our youthful days to see the sweet smelling hay gathered in little stacks dotting the plains so pleasantly and the gathered sheafs leaning up against each other for mutual support until the poetry (and grain) is taken out of them by an unsentimental threshing machine

THE ... AT ...

We thought there was hope for the country yet when we saw two boys of from twelve to fifteen years of age dutifully aiding their parents in the field to gather the new mown hay A lady remarked What good little fellows, and we thought the question What shall we do with our boys was solved When the pertinent question came up in the Victoria Legislature some years ago Prime Minister O'Shanassy's remedy was to marry them to the girls but that is a disposition imminent in any case, and we triumphantly thought—teach them agriculture In sober earnestness, this is the true solution of the California youths troubles

The reflection came to our mind—why so much trouble about agriculture in the University when in fact the University itself is set down in the midst of an aggregation of farms? Why not so arrange with some of the surrounding farmers that their operations might be carried on experimentally as well as practically for the benefit of students The University's own immediate land we are told is not fit for it

THE SOUTH SIDE

It was just a year since the writer had visited Berkeley before and, but few changes were perceptible in the surroundings or the college buildings There seemed to be, however, a slight movement in building on the south side but what the Homestead Association has been doing on the north side, we did not have time to observe A church has been built on the south side Mrs Ar... sell's lodging house and the French ... restaurant still flourish the ba... business in ... time ... hotel was closed but the house was enlivened with the music of a piano the sign The ... to Order (changed from "Refreshments to Order") on top of the French saloon was gone and Germania Gardens was a sign that obtruded on our sight a block or two down in the direction of the bay from the end of the track A picnic party composed nearly altogether of ladies and children was amusing itself in the pleasant little laurel grove on the south side of the creek but there was nothing more to disturb the air of the educational if not classic, precincts

IN THE SOUTH COLLEGE

Of course this being vacation time the class rooms and halls and grounds boarding houses and club cottages were deserted Not a student or professor did we see

Our special business was to the office of the Secretary Mr Stearnes in the South College We found that that gentleman had just taken his departure, but we found his polite clerk, Mr Harris on duty Before Professor Gilman's advent, the South College was known as the College of Agriculture and the North College the College of Letters One of the means adopted by the late President to obliterate the original traces and intentions of our State University was this change of names

LAND MATTERS

We interrogated Mr Harris on sundry matters among others the land interests of the University when the following conversation took place

Reporter—Mr Harris you were in the land office of the University in San Francisco and no doubt understand its affairs, can you oblige me by answering some questions of public interest

Mr Harris—With pleasure

R—Who is the University's land agent at present?

Mr H—Mr J W Shanklin of Oakland

R—Is the University selling any lands now

Mr H—Yes since the first of May

R—How much land do you suppose remained unsold, belonging to the University at that date

Mr H—About 25 000 acres

R—What prices on an average do these University lands bring

Mr H—About $5 per acre

R—Do you think this average good compared with College lands in other States?

Mr H—I do, only in one other State of the Union—Wisconsin—are equal prices obtained and there they are a little in excess of ours

Reporter—Considering that our lands are nearly all fit for cultivation and do not require the trouble and expense of clearing them of forests, ought they not bring much better prices?

Mr Harris—In some places the forest is valuable for its timber, and with as much of the land is hilly, and is also covered with forest, which makes a great difference, but our valley lands, of course, bring higher prices than any other public lands in the United States

Reporter—What is the lowest figure that Agricultural College lands sell for in the East

Mr Harris I have heard ... $1 25 per acre the government price

Reporter—Thank you, Mr Harris

REDUCTION IN GAS.

Important to Landlords and Gas Consumers.

SAFETY AND ECONOMY.

Office Oakland Gaslight Co,
February 1 187?

IN PURSUANCE OF THE POLICY FOLlowed by this Company since its formation viz to lower its rates as rapidly as is warranted by the growth of the city, the price of gas will be reduced on the

1st Day of March Next

—TO—

$4 25 PER 1000 CUBIC FEET

Considering the value of coal and labor the limited use of gas, and the distance between the places of consumption

Oakland will be the most cheaply lighted city in the Union

This price will leave no valid excuse for the use of any illuminant but Coal Gas, along the line of the Company's mains a large part of which are now and have been since they were laid unproductive of income

The advantages to be reaped by the public from cheap Gas are—

1st—A daily saving in the cost of one of the necessaries of life

2d—A decrease in the number of destructive fires caused by the use of the volatile distillates of Petroleum

3d—A saving of human life by substituting stationary lights for brittle lamps

4th—the most convenient and safest light brought within the means of the most economical household

However small the house the economy will be great It insured, the rate of premium will be lessened if not insuring, the risk of loss will be decreased

This reduction can only be profitable to the Company, by the accession of a sufficient number of new consumers to compensate for the lessening of its current receipts and it will become the interest of all consumers of gas to induce their neighbors to adopt this light, in order that further reductions may be made in the future

The attention of consumers is also directed to the use of gas for heating and cooking. In Europe and the Eastern cities it has been adopted to a great extent and its use is constantly extending

It is to be hoped that this movement will be accepted in the spirit which has inspired it and which has always characterized the Company, viz

That the Interests of Consumers and the Company are Identical.

The Company are constantly advised of all changes in modes of manufacture and distribution and will at all times avail itself of all real improvements which tend to improve quality and lessen price
